(a) whether it has come to Government's notice that the editors throughout the country are facing a lot of inconvenience in getting their titles approved as newspapers/periodicals are registered with the Registrar of Newspapers situated in Delhi;

(b) whether Government have proposed any action to establish regional offices in the capital of all the States; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) Government has not received any written complaint regarding the inconvenience in getting the titles verified. However, due to some technical fault in the software/hardware and not having a full time Press Registrar, there has been a pendency of about 40 days in verification of titles. To rectify the technical fault and streamline the system, NIC's technical support is being taken. Recently a full time Press Registrar has also been posted to facilitate work in the office of Registrar of Newspapers for India.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.
